Re: FOIA Case No. NLRB-2019-000524

Dear Mr. Moss:

This is in response to your request, under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), 5 U.S.C. § 552, received in this Office on March 1, 2019, in which you seek any and all documents filed as part of Service Employees International Union, Local 32BJ (Sodexo, Inc), Case No. 06-CB-236206. You agreed to assume financial responsibility for the processing of your request in the amount of $37.00.

We acknowledged your request on March 1, 2019.

Your request is denied in part and granted in part, as explained below.

After conducting a search of the Agency's electronic casehandling system, NxGen, I have determined that many of the records responsive to your request are privileged from disclosure pursuant to FOIA Exemption 7(A) of the FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(7)(A). Exemption 7(A) allows an agency to withhold records included in an open investigatory file where disclosure could reasonably be expected to interfere with a pending enforcement proceeding. See NLRB v. Robbins Tire & Rubber Co., 437 U.S. 214, 236 (1978). Here, Case No. 06-CB-236206 is open, pending an ongoing investigation before the Region. Therefore, the investigatory records in that case file are being withheld in full at this time pursuant to Exemption 7(A).

Your request is granted to the extent that I have attached the publicly available formal records in Case No. 06-CB-236206, which here include the unfair labor practice charge and the initial docketing letters to the parties. Redactions have been made to portions of these records to protect the privacy interests of individuals named in the case file. These redactions were made pursuant to FOIA Exemption 6, which pertains to information the release of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, and FOIA Exemption 7(C), which pertains to records or information compiled for law enforcement purposes, the release of which could reasonably be expected to constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(6) and (b)(7)(C).

Please be aware that certain additional case file records may become disclosable, subject to applicable exemptions, after the case closes, that is, once a Board decision issues, there has been full compliance with a settlement, or the case has otherwise been closed under Agency procedures. Accordingly, you may wish to file a new request at that time.

The status of this case can be tracked on the Agency website at www.nlr.gov by going to the Cases & Decisions tab, clicking case search, entering the case number in the search box and viewing the case page or by clicking the link here: <https://www.nlr.gov/case/06-CB-236206>.

For the purpose of assessing fees, we have placed you in Category D, the “all other requesters” category, because you do not fall within any of the other fee categories. Consistent with this fee category, you will be assessed charges to recover the reasonable direct costs for searching for the requested records, except that you will not be charged for the first two hours of search. NLRB Rules and Regulations, 29 C.F.R. § 102.117(d)(2)(ii)(D). Charges for all categories of requesters are $9.25 per quarter hour of professional time. 29 C.F.R. § 102.117(d)(2)(i).

Less than two hours of professional time was expended in searching for the requested material. Accordingly, there is no charge assessed for this request.

You may contact Marissa Wagner, the FOIA Attorney who processed your request, at (202) 273-2957 or by email at marissa.wagner@nlrb.gov, as well as the Agency’s FOIA Public Liaison, Patricia A. Weth, for any further assistance and/or to discuss any aspect of your request. The FOIA Public Liaison, in addition to the FOIA Specialist or Attorney-Advisor, can further explain responsive and releasable agency records, suggest agency offices that may have responsive records, and/or discuss how to narrow the scope of a request in order to minimize fees and processing times.
